

I can only speak for myself: By virtue of signing up for the NJ do-not-call list, I have made my wishes known. I do not wish to be called by telemarketers for ANY reason. Telemarketers bothering those who have not expressed a preference are invasive enough. They definitely do not have the right to market to those who have expressed a preference. I expect my privacy to be respected.